BALKAN BLOUSE

TIRES OUT CROWD

Few Remain to See Diploma Awarded to School Monday Night.

The Balkan blouse brought the commencement exercises of the Douglas high school to an untimely end Monday night. The exercises were held at the Electric theater at Washington park, but before the completion of the Balkan blouse, many fled out of the theater. There were few left to witness the presentation of the diploma to May Vernon Collins, the only graduate.

The Balkan blouse was under the direction of Bernice Love, who detailed every incident leading up to the making of a Balkan blouse, while the forces drew the patterns on blackboards, and then later cut out the patterns. It was a complete course in dressmaking.

While Miss Moore, Margaret Coleman, Oleona Long, Myrtle Adams, Elvira Steptoe, Manila Durden and Lucy Graves worked rapidly with pencils, scissors and a sewing machine, it was after 11 o'clock when the blouse was completed.

The program was held up with a song, the presentation of the diploma and the reading of a letter to come to the audience sat and watched the sewing machine, then it began to move out for the exercises.

The purpose and method of using the principal woodwork tools was illustrated by T. Edwards, who explained what each tool was and its use, while Rutherford Sanford held them up for inspection, afterwards giving the actual demonstration of their use.

May Vernon Collins, the graduating pupil, came to the stage to receive the diploma.

The singing of the different numbers in the program by the chorus was good.

The street railway took care of the crowd by having four special cars on the ground. There were 400 in attendance.

SENATOR MARK SMITH WILL FIGHT FOR ARIZONA ROUTE

United States senator Mark Smith has come to the rescue of the Old Trails members in the southwest, who were stung when the solicitors for the Old Trails association collected $250 each with the understanding that the Old Trails road would run this way, then switched it to northern Arizona.

The senator from Tucson has brought to the chamber of commerce there that he will fight any effort to leave southern Arizona off the Old Trails route, when the appropriation is asked from congress.

Senator Smith says that unless the road comes through the southwest he will put up a lively fight against it, and will see that the Arizona, Texas and southern California delegations will assist him in preventing the double cross being put over on the people of his district.

LANE WILL CRUISE AGAINST SPECULATORS IN HOMESTEADS

Washington, D. C., May 27.—To make the acquisition of homesteads as easy as possible in strict conformity with the law for bona fide settlers and genuine home makers, and as difficult as possible for more dummy entries or speculators, is the announced purpose of secretary Lane in beginning an investigation of the rules and regulations of the land office.

A month ago, secretary Lane sent a special representative to South Dakota to investigate specific charges against country land agents. This inquiry was broadened with the purpose eventually of revising the rules for the acquisition of homesteads.

A hearing will be held at Salt Lake City June 5, when governors of western states will meet there. Personal representatives of the secretary will conduct the hearings.

HOW MANY SOLDIERS IN GERMAN ARMY?

Don't Guess; Look It Up; You'll Find Lots of Such Things in Dictionary.

When you have worn out all other topics of discussion, as you sit about in the evening and turn the war dogs loose, and talk in large terms about the nations of the world and their power, and the relative strength of their armies and navies, let your friends twist about and talk contrary, but you "lay low" with your dictionary.

When they have thrashed out their differences and said all that it seems can be said, then you present the facts in the case as you often read in the pages of the great intelligence, The Herald's dictionary.

Keep the book by you during any argument and it is nine chances out of ten that you will floor your opponent with the facts about the fighting fellows—near home or on the other side of the world, at sea or on land, in Russia or in Japan.

The New Modern English Illustrated Dictionary is now being distributed in exchange for six certificates, and a small expense bonus by The Herald. Get a dictionary, feel sure of your facts and bid your contestants defiance in every debate. Incidentally, for Arthur is one of the battles in this up-to-date list of decisive martial encounters. This is truly a "modern" dictionary and has never been offered in this city before.

Better start that clipping; they are going fast.
